Remarks Following Discussions With Prime Minister Goh Chok Tong of Singapore in Singapore
October 21, 2003

Mr. Prime Minister, thanks. It's so gracious of you to host us, and it's a chance for me to say to the Singapore people how much we appreciate our friendship. And I appreciate our personal relationship, Mr. Prime Minister.

The Prime Minister is a wise man. He understands Southeast Asia very well. And a lot of our discussion was about how we continue to foster our agenda, which is one of peace and freedom as well as prosperity through trade.

I appreciate your good advice, and I want to thank you for your warm hospitality. It's a magnificent country you have here. We're honored to be here. Thank you again.

Presidential Determination on FY 2004 Refugee Admissions Numbers and Authorizations of In-Country
Refugee Status
October 21, 2003

Presidential Determination No. 2004-06

Memorandum for the Secretary of State

*Subject: Presidential Determination on FY 2004 Refugee Admissions Numbers and
Authorizations of In-Country Refugee Status
Consistent with Sections 207 and 101(a)(42), respectively, of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and Determination
Consistent with Section 2(b)(2) of the Migration and Refugee Assistance Act, as Amended*

Consistent with section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the "Act") (8 U.S.C. 1157), as amended, and after appropriate consultations with the Congress, I hereby make the following determinations and authorize the following actions:

The admission of up to 70,000 refugees to the United States during FY 2004 is justified by humanitarian concerns or is otherwise in the national interest; provided, however, that this number shall be understood as including persons admitted to the United States during FY 2004 with Federal refugee resettlement assistance under the Amerasian immigrant admissions program, as provided below.

The 70,000 admissions numbers shall be allocated among refugees of special humanitarian concern to the United States in accordance with the following regional allocations;
